Govt schemes

Several Indian government schemes are in the news today. The Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme for white goods (ACs and LED lights) has reopened its application window for 30 days, from September 15 to October 14, 2025. This move is based on the industry's interest to invest more under the scheme.

In Tamil Nadu, Chief Minister M.K. Stalin is set to launch the 'Anbukkarangal' initiative, which will provide financial assistance to children who have lost their parents. The new initiative is part of the state government's existing 'Thayumanavar' scheme.

Additionally, the Delhi government announced it will roll out a new welfare scheme or project every day for 15 days starting on September 17.
