Cricket

India vs. England Test Series: The fifth and final Test of the Anderson-Tendulkar Trophy is heading into a thrilling Day 5 at The Oval. The match was delayed by rain, with England needing 35 more runs to win and India requiring four wickets for victory. Cricket legend R. Ashwin has publicly criticized India's captain, Shubman Gill, and coach, Gautam Gambhir, for a "lack of game awareness" during the series.

Pakistan vs. West Indies T20I: Pakistan secured a 2-1 T20I series triumph against the West Indies in Florida. The victory was overshadowed by an injury to key batter Fakhar Zaman, who will return to Pakistan for rehabilitation. Spinner Mohammad Nawaz was named Player of the Series for his seven wickets.

World Championship of Legends (WCL): At 41 years old, cricket legend AB de Villiers showcased his fielding prowess with a match-winning run-out on the final ball, securing a thrilling 1-run victory for the South Africa Champions against Australia. South Africa will now face the Pakistan Legends in the final.

Indian Sports Bills: The Indian sports minister, Mansukh Mandaviya, is set to present two key bills—the National Sports Governance Bill 2025 and the National Anti-Doping (amendment) Bill 2025—in the Lok Sabha.

Tennis

Canadian Open (ATP & WTA): The Canadian Open saw a major upset as Wimbledon 2025 winner Iga Swiatek was defeated by Denmark's Clara Tauson. On the men's side, Taylor Fritz advanced to the quarterfinals, completing the "box set" of reaching the quarterfinal stage at all nine ATP Masters 1000 tournaments. Ben Shelton and Alex de Minaur also progressed to the quarterfinals.

Australian Pro Tour: The new Australian Pro Tour calendar has been released, with a major new incentive: the top-performing Australian male and female players will earn a main-draw singles wildcard into the Australian Open 2026. The expanded tour will include new regional locations and events in Brisbane, Sydney, and Playford.

Athletics

U.S. Track and Field Championships: Noah Lyles won the men's 200-meter final but the victory was marred by a post-race altercation with Kenny Bednarek, who shoved Lyles and criticized his behavior. This sets up a heated rivalry ahead of the World Championships.

Qosanov Memorial: Indian long jumper Murali Sreeshankar won the men's long jump title at the Qosanov Memorial 2025 athletics meet in Almaty, Kazakhstan, with a leap of 7.94m. This was his third consecutive win since returning from a knee injury.

Football

OFC U-16 Women's Championship: Host nation Samoa secured a semi-final spot after a decisive 4-0 victory over Fiji.
