1. Cricket:

World Championship of Legends (WCL) 2025:

AB de Villiers' Vintage Performance: On July 22, 2025, in a WCL 2025 clash at Northampton, South Africa Champions' skipper AB de Villiers rolled back the years with a breathtaking 63 off just 30 balls* against India Champions, leading his side to a formidable 208/6. His innings featured three fours and four towering sixes, showcasing his signature "Mr. 360" style.

Stunning Relay Catch: De Villiers also made headlines with a sensational relay catch to dismiss Yusuf Pathan, which went viral, further highlighting his exceptional athleticism despite his age.

South Africa Victory: South Africa Champions secured an emphatic 88-run (DLS) win over India Champions, putting them atop the WCL standings with two wins from two.

India Women vs. England Women ODI Series:

India Clinches Series 2-1: India secured a thrilling 13-run victory against England in the third ODI at Riverside Ground, Chester-Le-Street on July 23, 2025, winning the series 2-1.

Harmanpreet Kaur's Century: Indian captain Harmanpreet Kaur led from the front with a brilliant 102 runs off 84 balls, marking her seventh ODI hundred and becoming the third Indian woman to reach 4000 ODI runs.

Kranti Goud's Six-Wicket Haul: Young Indian bowler Kranti Goud delivered a remarkable performance, taking six wickets for 52 runs (6/52). She became the second-youngest Indian player to take a five-wicket haul in ODIs.

India Men's Test Cricket: India and England are heading into the fourth Test at Old Trafford, Manchester, starting today, July 23, 2025. India is currently trailing 1-2 in the five-match Test series.

Shikhar Dhawan's Special Event: Former Indian cricketer Shikhar Dhawan is set to return to Lord's Cricket Ground on July 23, 2025, for a special event titled "Beyond the Boundaries." This initiative by his Da One Group focuses on grassroots sports and social impact, following his retirement from all forms of domestic and international cricket in August last year.

Bangladesh's Maiden T20I Series Win: Bangladesh secured their maiden T20I series with a dramatic 8-run win over Pakistan in the second match in Dhaka, clinching an unassailable 2-0 lead in the three-match series.
