Cricket: Asia Cup and BCCI Updates

Asia Cup 2025: The Asia Cup is in full swing. India, fresh off a dominant nine-wicket victory over the UAE, is preparing for a highly anticipated clash against Pakistan on Sunday, September 14. Pakistan also started their campaign with a decisive win against Oman.

BCCI News: There is significant speculation regarding the upcoming BCCI elections on September 28. Former India spinner Harbhajan Singh has been nominated for the post of president by the Punjab Cricket Association (PCA), making him a strong contender. The election will also be held for other key positions like secretary and treasurer.

Team India's New Drills: In preparation for their upcoming matches, the Indian team is reportedly undergoing new and innovative fielding drills in Dubai, introduced by fielding coach T. Dilip, to improve their ability to cut gaps in the field.

"Invisible" Boycott: Reports suggest that most BCCI officials will not be attending the India vs. Pakistan match in Dubai. This is being seen as an "invisible boycott" due to rising political tensions between the two nations following recent events.

Other Sports

Badminton: India's star men's doubles pair, Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty, have entered the final of the Hong Kong Open after a dominant semifinal win. Lakshya Sen also reached the semifinals of the same tournament.

Boxing: Indian boxers Jaismine Lamboria and Nupur Sheoran have both advanced to the finals of their respective weight categories at the World Boxing Championships in Liverpool.

Athletics: The 20th World Athletics Championships has officially begun in Tokyo, Japan. India's challenge will be spearheaded by double Olympic medalist and javelin thrower, Neeraj Chopra.

Chess: Indian Grandmaster and World Champion Gukesh Dommaraju was held to a 103-move draw by his compatriot Divya Deshmukh in the FIDE Grand Swiss tournament.

Tennis: In the Davis Cup, India's team, led by Sumit Nagal, is facing Switzerland in a World Group I tie. India is currently leading 2-0 after victories by Nagal and Dhakshinewar Suresh.
