Sports

Cricket

India vs Pakistan Asia Cup: India defeated Pakistan by seven wickets in a Group A match of the Asia Cup. Spinner Kuldeep Yadav took 3 wickets for 18 runs, earning the Player of the Match award. The victory was, however, overshadowed by controversy as Indian players chose not to shake hands with their Pakistani counterparts after the match. Indian captain Suryakumar Yadav stated it was a collective "team call" and dedicated the victory to the armed forces and victims of a recent terror attack.

Athletics

World Athletics Championships: In a historic finish at the World Athletics Championships in Tokyo, Tanzania's Alphonse Felix Simbu won gold in the men's marathon in a photo finish, narrowly beating Germany's Amanuel Petros. Simbu's victory gave Tanzania its first-ever world title in athletics.

Football

Premier League: Manchester City beat rivals Manchester United 3-0, with Erling Haaland scoring twice. The win provided a much-needed lift for City after two consecutive league defeats. The loss for Manchester United added pressure on their manager, Ruben Amorim.

Cycling

Vuelta a España: The final stage of the Vuelta a España in Madrid was canceled due to large-scale pro-Palestinian protests. As a result,

Danish cyclist Jonas Vingegaard was declared the overall winner. The protests, which targeted the Israel Premier Tech team, disrupted the race route and led to the cancellation of the podium ceremony.
